

Learn doll making from the best. Join the Doll Artisan Guild.

> Your choice of magazines. Join the Guild and have your pick: a subscription to Doll Artisan, for creators of classic reproduction dolls, or DollPro, for creators of reproductions of modern dolls. Both give you step-by-step instruction on making beautiful dolls. Every issue is packed with articles on painting, costuming, wigging—the works. Choose which magazine you prefer or, for a small additional cost, subscribe to both.

> Join the Guild and you become eligible to participate in doll making seminars on all levels at Seeley Doll Centers near your home.

> Guild members also enjoy manufacturer's discounts on doll making products, including Seeley's newest molds. And you'll be able to buy the Guild's very special, limited-edition molds (below).

> Compete around the world. You can compete for top awards of international renown and attend conventions in the U.S., Europe, and Australia. Meet fellow dollmakers who share your love for this art form.

Join the Doll Artisan Guild and you become a member of the world's largest not-for-profit organization for porcelain doll makers. Benefits are many, including the opportunity to purchase the limited-edition molds on this page. These very special dolls have been designed with Guild members in mind.
